BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

A life-long resident of Lake Forest, Jennifer has an in-depth understanding of the Lake Forest/Lake Bluff communities, the North Shore, and the neighborhoods of Chicago. Her background in sales, marketing, development, customer service, relationship building, and management are specific strengths she can draw from in the real estate area. Jennifer has knowledge of both the private and public school systems in Lake Forest, and she serves as a volunteer annually within Districts 67 and 115. She is deeply committed to the Lake Forest Chapter of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago, having worked on the past 11 Showhouse & Garden events in a leadership capacity. She also oversees the Treasures Tent, securing donations and selling them at the annual Antiques Sale for Infant Welfare Society. Jennifer has a passion for interior design, local architecture, and enjoys antique and accessory hunting. She has assisted many families locally with their moves, organizing, and styling their homes with the ability of repurposing their treasures. With her knowledge of the North Shore, background in sales, and natural leadership acumen, Jennifer is an insightful real estate professional.
